

This resource directory was printed with funds from Community Partnerships for Protecting Children (CPPC) and Decategorization (DCAT).

Madison County Cares is a non-profit organization that brings together all of the Human Service groups providing services to Madison County residents. It was founded in the Mid-1990s as a drug and alcohol prevention effort and has matured to its present all-encompassing organization. They meet most months to report on new services, share expertise and discuss how we can work together to make Madison County a healthier place for residents of all ages. The organization is funded through grants, donations, and events.

Membership is free and open to any group, organization or individual interested in working to make Madison County healthier and safer place to live, work and do business.

Meetings are generally held the fourth Tuesday of the month at noon at the Sports Page restaurant, HWY 92 East in Winterset. (Lunch is “on your own.”)

Outreach Efforts:

Distracted Driving Curriculum

The Health Wellness and Safety Fair- In the middle schools, we annually coordinate this event for students to learn about making good choices.

The Family Fun Day- We have annually hosted an opportunity for the family to come together and enjoys a day of activities and food to strengthen the family and to encourage healthy lifestyles.

We are proud to include the following organizations and agencies on our roster:
